MARMARIS - HISARONU - DATCA - SYMI - RHODES - MARMARIS

1st DAY : MARMARIS: The boarding starts at 3:30 p.m. from Marmaris Port. First day the service starts in the boat with diner. The overnight takes place in Marmaris Port. Marmaris which has been under the governorship of so many different nationalities has been built upon the antique Karian city; Psychos. The most valuable work-piece that you will see today is Marmaris Castle coming from 1577. There is also a mosque from Ottomans and an 8-room caravansaray covered with arches. The ruins of the Antique times lie on Asar Hill; a short hill located on the northern side of the city. Marmaris is one of the best-known touristic places of Turkey; has at the same time got a large marina.

2nd DAY : ARABIAN ISLAND - BOZUKKALE: After breakfast we will hoist sail to Arabian Peninsula. After lunch and a swimming break sailing to Bozukkale, Dinner and overnight in Bozukkale. Loryma (Bozukkent); the historical city was the centred of Rhodes Peraia in the 10. Century B.C. has a castle with 9 temples and parallel walls to each other. The name Bozukkale means 'crooked castle' and is given to the castle as its one side is missing. Because of its geographical situation and the narrowness of its ports' entrance this port has been used by the Greek navy forces during Peloponnese Sea Wars. Karor, the General of Atina before the Cnidus War has gathered all his ships here in 395 B.C. , whereas; Demetrios; the son of Antigonos in 305 B.C. has chosen this port for the preparations before attacking to Rhodes.

3. Gün : DIRSEKBUKU-BOZBURUN: We will turn our way to dirsekbuku after breakfast. After docking in dirsekbuku we will going to Bozburun. Bozburun is a small fishing town. This area was popular and suitable for sponge-diving but nowadays the people of the island are no more interested in sponge-diving as it is not worthy and is dangerous. In the last years sponge-diving is replaced by gullet tourism and Bozburun Gulleets nowadays could take its place in this sector

4. Gün : AKTUR-BENCİK: The sailing goes on with Aktur after breakfast. Right after serving lunch we will go on sail on the northern side of the gulf. Our first stops will Bencik Bay; which has a very narrow entrance but a unique view when you get inside. Bencik is located at the narrowest part of the peninsula that divides Hisaronu Gulf from the Gokova Gulf but closer to Hisaronu. The Persians came to Datca Peninsula in 550s B.C. with Carian governor Harpagos leading them. The Cnidus people who got the news that Harpagos is coming to conquer their city wanted to unite the both gulf by digging a tunnel between to make two peninsulas one island and; the defence easier but they could not manage it the city finally was conquered by the Persians. We will go to Datca after. The dinner and overnight will in Datca.

5. Gün : SYMI: The captain will be finish All paper works and formalities before boats live for the first stop to Greece island Symi. We will arrive to the Monastery of Panormitis located in the southern part of Simi. After visiting the Monastery and the museum of this quiet and peaceful coast we will take swimming break at noon time and will arrive to Simi port in the evening. You can see the shore-side with its neo-classical houses and the inner streets. The island presents magnificent natural beauties for those nature-lovers and hikers. The island from the north to the south is 13 km. and from the west to east is 8 km. long. total area is 68 square kilometres. You will love Simi with its pine and oak forests and unique bays.

6. Gün : RHODES: Sailing to Rhodes early in the morning; Rhodes is the largest of the Dodecanese islands. The island is a very popular holiday place as it has one of the best-protected and the largest European Medieval city and has warm weather almost 300 days of a year. Rhodes has been a home for many civilizations; starting with the knights of St. John in the medieval century, then Ottomans and Italians...thus island has one of the unique historical harmonies and the beauty of these three. The main port Rhodes is the Rhodes City that has the same name with the island. Rhodes city is divided into two main areas: the new town and the old town. One of the most beautiful beaches of the island is in the new town. The other very touristic areas of Rhodes island are; Lyndos and Kamiros. The city, which is still surrounded with 12meters thick city-walls gives you the feeling of travelling back to Medieval century especially when you walk around its narrow stone roads. After dinner our guests are highly recommended to enjoy a Rhodes night out.

7. Gün : MARMARIS: The captain will be finishing all paper works and formalities before boats live from Rhodes. We are going to Marmaris. When we join to Turkish water, Captain will be finish customs formalities. We are staying at Bay near Marmaris For Swimming and Lunch break and dinner and we will stay overnight at Marmaris Harbour.

8. Gün : Leaving the boat after breakfast taking all your unforgettable and very enjoyable memories with you.

Captain may change the route depending weather conditions.
